President's Letter

A big thank you to all of who helped make our 2008 Book Sale a success! The Friends raised $17,500 for our Library-- another record year.

With the proceeds from the Book Sale, we will continue to publish the five newsletters, fund the summer intern position, the museum pass program and the Winter Music Series. Additionally, the Friends will sponsor the Nutmeg book discussion groups, children's summer stories and crafts, as well as the popular ice cream social. Additional fall programs will be offered.

Three years ago, the Friends started a special fund for monies to be distributed after the new addition to the Library is completed. We were able to add an additional $10,000 to that fund this year from our profits. We are hoping that this fund will continue to grow and provide some special enhancements to the proposed addition.

A special thank you to the volunteers who made the Book Sale happen! Under the very capable leadership of Martha Dixon, chairperson, over 50 volunteers contributed their time (and hard work) at the Sale. Book Sale 2008 would not have been possible without the generous contribution of sorting space by John Carmon. The use of the basement of the Carmon Family Center provided the Friends with a clean, dry, spacious place to sort and store our books. We are very lucky to have been invited back next year. As always, the crew from Avon Public Works moved truckload after truckload of books into the Senior Center in a timely and efficient manner. This year several, very capable (and strong) students from Avon Old Farms School lugged 830 boxes of books from the basement of the sorting space into the waiting trucks --- an arduous task, to say the least. Many, many hours are spent throughout the entire year: sorting, filing, lugging books. It's the volunteers who make the Sale, and we thank you all.

Author Luncheon - Save the Date

Have lunch with popular author Elinor Lipman. The Friends of the Avon Library have invited Elinor Lipman to their fundraising luncheon on Friday, October 24 at the Golf Club of Avon. Check the library for ticket information.

Expansion Update

The architectural firm of Tuthill and Wells continues to make significant progress in the initial design phase of the library expansion. Working closely with the Library Building Committee, architect Peter Wells is refining both the exterior and interior designs, which address the key priorities for the building expansion and renovation. Interior flexibility is very important so that changing needs of the library can be accommodated. The committee has discussed the possibility of moving out of the building during construction, so research on the cost/benefit of doing that is underway.

The Board of Directors has hired the consulting firm of Clemow Associates to assist us in determining the feasibility of conducting a capital campaign to raise funds for certain expenses associated with the library expansion. This firm will conduct a series of interviews this summer with key people in Avon, and will also provide guidance to the Board in capital campaign planning and identifying the campaign committee. We are looking forward to the enthusiasm and broad participation of Avon residents in various aspects of the library campaign. In addition, the town hopes to receive a significant state grant to be applied toward the building costs and is preparing to submit a grant application this summer.

ATTENTION

AVON BOOK CLUB MEMBERS

We are happy to add a new service to our library reading community. Starting this spring, we will borrow multiple copies of books from other libraries for your book clubs. We will notify you when the books arrive.

So far we've had an enthusiastic response from book club members. If you are interested in participating please have a member of the book club email Alice Pentz to register your group's name at apentz@avonctlibrary.info. Please request one title at a time and do not request NEW titles. The lending period is the usual three weeks.

FRIENDS OF CONNECTICUT LIBRARIES AWARD

The Friends of Connecticut Libraries has announced that Barbara Leonard will receive the organization's award for Individual Achievement as a Friend of Connecticut Libraries.

Barbara is recognized for her dedication to libraries and her leadership of our great Friends Board, providing the spark for many of the Avon Library's programs and services for the past ten years. Membership has increased from 310 in 1998 to 750 in 2008. Receipts for the annual book sale have gone from $7,000 in 1998 to just over $17,000 in 2007.

The award will be bestowed at the Friends annual meeting on June 14 at the Plainville Public Library.

HEAD OF TECHNICAL SERVICES RETIRES

Susan Turner, Head of Technical Services, retired from the Avon Library on May 1, 2008. Throughout her twenty years of managing the cataloging of materials at Avon Library, Susan witnessed a progression of technical changes: from the typewriter and card catalog to WIFI and downloadable audiobooks. She took pride in her role of maintaining the library collection, both in ordering new materials and weeding out the old. Susan also worked on the Reference Desk and supervised volunteers. We honor her years of service and wish her well in this next phase of her life.

Good luck Susan!

VOLUNTEERS HONORED

On Wednesday, April 30 the Avon Library staff held a reception for the library volunteers. Our volunteers include the Friends of the Library, the Library Board, and the newly created Expansion Committee.

They also include bakers, boutique attendants, book sale sorters (a few of which were working during the Volunteer Reception!), VITA tax program assistants, and crafters. Each of these people helps the Children's, Adult, and Technical Processing Departments with special projects, homebound delivery, storytimes, clerical tasks, the local history room, music concerts, and numerous assorted tasks as we find them. Without the help of these 200+ people, the library would not be what it is today. THANK YOU for all that you do.

FARMINGTON VALLEY ONE BOOK

Carlos Eire, the author of Waiting For Snow in Havana: Confessions of a Cuban Boy is scheduled to speak on Tuesday, October 7 at the Avon Senior Center. Plan to read this powerful memoir over the summer. Multiple copies of the book are available at the library. All the libraries in the Farmington Valley will be hosting book discussions in the fall. Check the website for more information.

ROUTE 44: HOW IT'S CHANGED

Long ago, Route 44 was a dirt road connecting Hartford, CT. to Albany NY, winding over Avon Mountain through Avon Center following old Indian trails. At the bottom of Avon Mountain, travelers could rest at the Inn and have their horses tended at the blacksmith shop. Over time, Avon Center grew with shops, a railroad station, a post office, a general store, a church, a pharmacy, gas stations, and restaurants, with one restaurant, Avon Diner, offering overnight stays in cabins. As Avon grew and changed into a suburban town, Route 44 grew and changed into a major thoroughfare. Stop by the library to check out the current exhibit of photographs from the Marion Hunter Local History Room and see how Rt. 44 has changed.

FIND A GRAVE

The Reference staff, always eager to provide access to genealogical resources, has recently begun a new project entering headstone inscriptions from the West Avon Cemetery into a new website findagrave.com. This website allows users to access, maintain and expand an online database, currently totaling over 22 million burial records of cemeteries and graves from around the world. Thousands use this site daily trying to locate long-lost ancestors. Using the cemetery transcription records Marian and Ruth Thompson compiled in 1987, staff and volunteers have entered up to 400 records, each containing the headstone inscription. Plans for the future include scanning a photograph of each headstone into the database. Check out the West Avon Cemetery entries at www.findagrave.com.
