Amber Lansing – Our New Children's Librarian

We are pleased to announce that Amber Lansing is our new Head Children's Librarian. Amber has been a valuable member of the Children's Department since 2005 and recently completed her MLS degree.

Expansion Update

Plans continue and much progress has been made toward our goal of starting the library construction later this year. The Library Building Committee recently recommended to the Town Council the hiring of a construction manager to oversee the project and the council has approved their recommendation. The architect is completing detail drawings of both the exterior and the interior of the building, so that revised project cost information can be developed. The good news is that the current construction environment will likely allow us to take advantage of more favorable pricing opportunities for both materials and labor.

We continue to do everything possible to appeal to state authorities to secure final Bond Commission approval of our construction grant, but due to the severe financial crisis the state faces, it is possible that our grant will not receive final approval in the near future. The Town Council is considering various options to deal with this possibility.

The Avon Library Capital Campaign is underway, chaired by Mark Nolan. Mark has assembled an extraordinary team of talented individuals in key campaign positions. They include: Magda Stayton, Dick Kisiel, John Carmon, Don McDonald, Jeffrey Baldwin, Lisa House, Lou Dibacco, Nancy Muench and many others. In addition, we are pleased to announce that Nancy and Jeffrey Hoffman will serve as honorary chairs of the campaign. We are currently seeking leadership gifts and grants, and expect to launch the Avon community campaign later this year. We welcome pledges and donations to the campaign at any time. If you would like to discuss a pledge or gift to the library, please contact Mark Nolan at 860.673.3200, or any other member of the campaign committee.

President's Letter

Book Sale 2010 was another great success --- a big thanks to all of you who helped and attended. The Friends raised almost $22,000 for our Library. We want to thank you for your support of our organization.

With the proceeds from the Book Sale, we will continue to publish five newsletters, fund the summer intern position and the museum pass program. Additionally, the Friends will sponsor the Nutmeg book discussion groups, children's summer stories and crafts groups, as well as the popular ice cream social. All programs are the result of the profits from the Sale.

Five years ago, the Friends started a special fund for monies to be distributed after the new addition to the Library is completed. We were able to add an additional sum to that fund this year from our profits. We are hoping that this fund will continue to grow and provide some special enhancements to the expanded and renovated library.

A special thank you to the volunteers who made the Book Sale happen. Under the very capable leadership of Marie Peluso, chairperson, over 60 volunteers contributed their time (and hard work) at the Sale. Book Sale 2010 would not have been possible without the generous contribution of sorting space by John Carmon. The use of the basement of the Carmon Family Center provided the Friends with a clean, dry, spacious place to sort and store our books. We are very lucky to have been invited back for next year. As always, the crew from Avon Public Works moved truckload after truckload of books into the Senior Center in a timely and efficient manner. This year 20 very capable (and strong) students from Avon Old Farms School lugged 950 boxes of books from the basement of the sorting space into the waiting trucks --- an arduous task, to say the least. Many, many hours are spent throughout the entire year: sorting, filing, lugging books. It's the volunteers who make the Sale, and we thank you all.

Be sure to check out the slide show of Book Sale 2010 on the Library's website!

Avon Library Seeks Grant for Treasures of Connecticut Libraries Project

Card game at Climax Fuse Company, circa 1899

The Avon Library has applied for a grant from the Connecticut State Library and Library Connection consortium to participate in the Treasures of Connecticut Libraries project to digitize a portion of the historical photograph collection of Clinton B. Hadsell (1872-1947). The digital photos will be cataloged and made available online for searching through the Treasures of Connecticut Libraries website. The website is a collection of digitized items from the historical collections of public libraries across Connecticut featuring photos, maps, landmarks and gravestones.

The Hadsell collection consists of approximately 200 photographs taken by the Avon resident at the turn of the 20th century. Subjects include local sites such as bridges, Route 44, Avon Mountain, local farms, and Avon residents at work and play. The collection is housed in the archives of the Marion Hunter History Room at the library.

The grant will allow us to highlight our unique collection by providing free, web-based access for Avon residents, students, teachers, historians and genealogists with roots in Avon. For more information about this project, please contact Patrice Celli at the Reference Desk 860-673-9712.
