

Understanding Darfur:

A presentation by
Deacon Arthur Miller,
member of the Connecticut
Coalition to Save Darfur

Deacon Arthur Miller, Director of the Office for Black Catholic Ministries Archdiocese of Hartford, is the spokesperson for the Connecticut Coalition to Save Darfur, a group formed specifically to influence state, national, and international officials and institutions to stop the conflict in Darfur, Sudan. He has also presented at the Avon Middle School on the issue of Civil Rights.

Those who have read They Poured Fire on Us From the Sky are encouraged to attend this event before meeting the authors on October 8, 2009, at Avon High School.

Event made possible by grants from the Avon Education Foundation and the Lloyd David and Carlye Cannon Wattis Foundation
