

Meet an American Original: Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy Onassis

Saturday, June 19th, 2010

Please note change of date

2pm

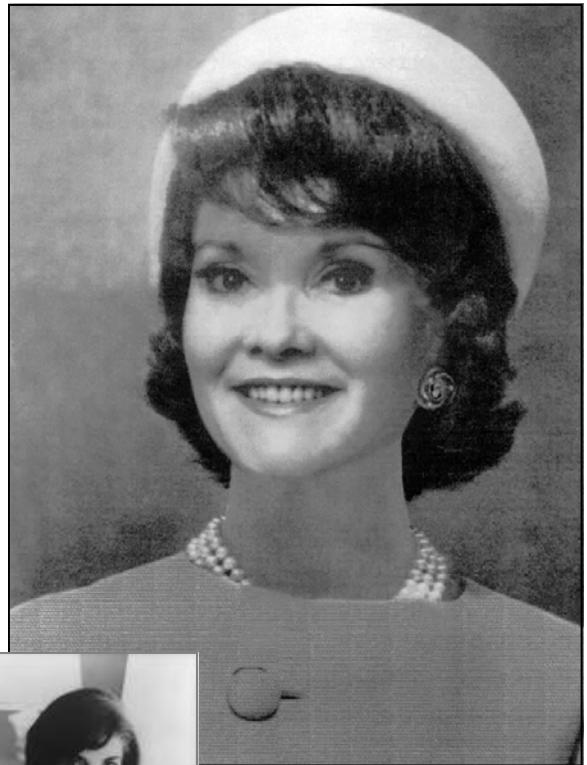

at the Avon Senior Center

635 West Avon Rd., Avon CT 06001

In this compelling one-woman show, Robin Lane reveals the real Jacqueline Onassis...the private woman behind the public mask, while keeping alive the mystique, the magic, that was Jackie.

In addition, we will learn about Jackie's years in publishing and her great love of literature

Stylish refreshments will be served!

Robin Lane as Jackie Kennedy

Jackie Kennedy

Register online at the library's website, www.avonctlibrary.info for this event, or by calling the Senior Center at 860-675-4355.

Robin Lane, actress, author, director and producer, has been bringing history to life for more than a decade. She has presented her original one-woman plays in theaters, schools, colleges and museums throughout the United States and has frequently been asked to return with each new production. Robin Lane studied voice at New England Conservatory of Music and Berklee College of Music. She earned a BFA in theater at Boston University. Lane has starred in such musical productions as Company, Cabaret, Follies, and Man of La Mancha. Her non-musical credits include leading roles in The Little Foxes, The Autumn Garden, Medea, and The Winter's Tale.

This event is co-sponsored by the Avon Free Public Library, Friends of the Avon Free Public Library, and the Avon Senior Center