

Meet a local author this Spring!

(this program was rescheduled from its initial date of February 16, 2010, due to snow!)

Tuesday, April 20, 2010

Meet Louis Norton

1pm

Louis Arthur Norton is the author of Captains Contentious: The Dysfunctional Sons of the Brine, New England's Stormalong, and Joshua Barney: Hero of the Revolution and 1812.

Louis is a Maritime Historian, a native of the old seaport of Gloucester, Massachusetts, and a professor emeritus at the University of Connecticut. Norton writes frequently on maritime history topics, and he was awarded the 2002 and 2006 Gerald E. Morris Prizes for maritime historiography for articles published in the Log of Mystic Seaport.

This program will be held in the Avon Library Community Room
Refreshments will be served.

The author will have his books available for purchase and signing after his presentation.